ESSENTIAL READING FOR LAW STUDENTS

THE LAW OF DEFAMATION in Singapore and Malaysia Second Edition

Krish R Eoens, LLB(Dal), LLM(Syd), Barrister and Solicitor, New South Wales, formerly Lecturer in Law, National University of Singapore

A significant body of local case law in this specialized and highly technical area of the law of torts provides a clear opportunity for greater reliance on local rather than foreign jurisprudence in the future development of the law of defamation in Singapore and Malaysia. This book provides a quick reference and base from which the local jurisprudence can be easily identified and utilized in that process. The reader will benefit not only from the extensive review of and principal reliance on all reported local cases, but from the detailed case and statute citator and the damages digest contained in the appendices.

Students will also benefit from the thorough discussion of all major aspects of this area of the law in a relatively brief and concise manner. While the law of defamation frequently receives limited space in the torts course in law school, the technical nature of the subject causes many students to conclude that they cannot devote the time needed to grasp the subject with any degree of assurance. Major foreign texts on defamation are of limited assistance to them here due to their length and exhaustive coverage of the topic. This book will allow students with limited time to become familiar with, and comfortable in understanding, the law of defamation.

COMPANY SECRETARIAL PRACTICE MANUAL

Lee Fook Hong, Associate Professor (Adj), MBA, FCIS, FAMA, ACLArb, FTIA, FTIHK, ATII(Malaysia)

The book is essential reading for those who manage companies and for businessmen who need to know how a company should be run. The author deals in particular with items such as public issues and employees' share schemes and the workings of the Singapore Stock Exchange. The wider issues implicit in amalgamations and reconstructions, takeovers and mergers, and the procedures that are necessary upon liquidation and winding up are also dealt with in this book.

The Manual is also useful for students studying for examinations in Malaysian Company Secretarial Practice and the practitioners practising in Malaysia. Many of the provisions in the Singapore and Malaysia companies legislation are, in substance, identical or similar, although the numbering of the sections is different.
