MALAYAN LAW JOURNAL WORDS AND PHRASES JUDICIALLY DEFINED

Words and Phrases Judicially Defined is a compilation of definitions extracted from judgments reported in the Malayan Law Journal from 1932 to 1988.

The words and phrases are arranged in alphabetical order. Main headings and sub-headings have been used, where possible, to produce a logical grouping of definitions that are related in meaning.

Under these headings, the definitions have been further arranged according to the statutes to which they refer. Words or phrases used in similar contexts are thus gathered together.

In addition, comprehensive cross-references to words bearing the same meaning, to alternative headings, and to allied definitions are given to assist the reader. Malayan Law Journal Words and Phrases Judicially Defined will be an invaluable guide in your legal research and practice where the interpretation of words is of vital importance.

CRIMINAL LAW IN SINGAPORE AND MALAYSIA:

Text and Materials

K.L. Koh, C.M.V. Clarkson and N.A. Morgan

This book is the first of its kind on the criminal law in Singapore and Malaysia. It combines the best features of a substantive textbook and a "cases and materials" book. Other relevant materials are also drawn from England, India, Sri Lanka and other jurisdictions. The offences dealt with in this book broadly cover the territory of the criminal law. They include most offences of significance, such as culpable homicide, murder, theft and criminal breach of trust, and illustrate the approach to be followed in the other areas.
